

LITERACY 2

WALT –IDENTIFY THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN FACT AND OPINION

Over this week and next week we are going to be writing our own information texts about wild animals!

Why do you think we have non fiction texts?

Can you think of different types of non fiction texts?

Can you circle whether these sentences are facts or opinions? Tell a grown up how you know!

Turtles have a hard shell.

Fact / Opinion

Turtles are very cute.

Fact / Opinion

A group of turtles is called a bale.

Fact / Opinion

Turtles have a sharp beak for eating.

Fact / Opinion

Turtles live in many places on land and in water.

Fact / Opinion

Turtles are the best animals at the zoo.

Fact / Opinion

Most turtles move very slowly because of their heavy shell and short legs.

Fact / Opinion

Here are some pictures can you write 2 facts and 2 opinions for each one?
Try writing them out in your writing book (we need to practise our handwriting!)

Game!

- Adults read out these sentences.
- If you think it is a fact go and stand one side of the room
- If you think it is an opinion stand the other side of the room
- If you can have other people play you can make it a race!
