Plot:

Two opposing families are at war. They really dislike each other. The city is divided into two divisions: one section for the Monty family, the other for the Casper family. A boy and a girl fall in love. The boy is called Ronny Monty, and the girl is called Julie Casper.

Remember to think about:

- setting – give a brief description of where the scene is taking place
- plot – create a simple sequence of events
- stage directions – put these into bracket
- characters – not only what they will say but how they should say it. Each character will need a new line but here is no need for speech marks.
