'It's no big deal.' Ever since Mr Rivers told me that I'd got the lead part in our school play, Robin Hood: Superstar!, I'd dreamed about opening night. Whenever I was stuck on a tricky maths question or drifting off in assembly, my mind would wander to the moment when I would step on stage in front of a hundred wide-eyed, gaping-mouthed kids and parents, and belt out my first solo number: I'm Robin Hood - superstar! I steal from the rich to give to the poor. But now that the moment had arrived, I had the jitters. This made it very hard to put my costume on. "Ash" I tried to tie my laces, but they ended up looking like balls of spaghetti.	Chapter One
