

Look at these four sentences. Carefully fill in the two missing words, which are opposites.

E.g. A hare runs fast but a tortoise is slow.

1. A mouse is _____ but an elephant is _____.
2. A rock is _____ but cotton wool is _____.
3. Ice is _____ but the sun is _____.
4. A lemon is _____ but sugar is _____.
5. A fun fair is _____ but a test is _____.
6. I was _____ in bed but my mum was _____ downstairs.
7. A giant is really _____ but an ant is _____.

Challenge: can you come up with your own sentences with antonyms in?