

Title: Ancient Egyptian Adventures Should Be Allowed. Target audience: My adult

Counter arguments from audience:

- Missing school
- Eating sweets whilst away
- Being too young

Main arguments:

- I will learn a lot on the adventure
- I will have healthy food
- I will have an adult with me so I will be safe

Introduction:

- I should be allowed to travel to Ancient Egypt
- I am going to persuade you by giving examples of why

Argument paragraph 1:

- A good learning experience: tombs, temples, paintings, buildings, meet a pharoe.

Argument paragraph 2:

- My safety: with a trusted adult
- Time machine has been tested numerous times
- They have bread, fruit, vegetables and water so I will be healthy

Conclusion:

- A once in a lifetime opportunity to learn first hand
- A safe, nutritious, exciting academic trip
- Would you really want me to miss it?

Vocabulary Bank

Adverbs of possibility: definitely, perhaps, undeniably

Modal verbs: must, should, shall, will, may

Alliteration: sandy scenery, timeless tombs, powerful pyramids, historic hieroglyphs

Emotional vocabulary: exciting, disappointed, , unbelievable, heartbroken

Rhetorical questions: Could you have ever imagined it? Would you want to miss that? Can you not understand how important this is?

Title:

Target audience:

Main arguments:

Counter arguments from audience:

Introduction:

Argument paragraph 1:

Argument paragraph 2:

Conclusion:

Vocabulary Bank

Adverbs of possibility:

Modal verbs:

Alliteration:

Emotional vocabulary:

Rhetorical questions: