

Roman Gods and Goddesses

In ancient Rome, everything had a God or Goddess in charge of it. Honouring the Gods was an important part of daily life for the Romans. They built magnificent temples and dedicated them to the Gods. The Romans had thousands of Gods and Goddesses, but the main ones were Jupiter, Juno, Neptune, Vesta, Minerva, Mercury, Apollo, Diana, Venus and Mars.

Find out what each God is the god of and write that in the box. If you have space you could also draw a small picture.

Vesta	Neptune	Jupiter	m.	Juno
Minerva	Mercury	Apollo	Diana	Venus	Mars