Tricky Mornings? Let's Talk!

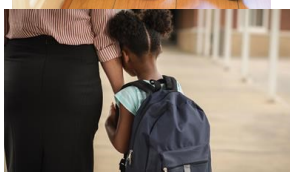

You are invited to attend a friendly and supportive parent coffee morning to share, discuss and ask questions to help with tricky mornings.

Do mornings sometimes feel like a struggle? Are your children sometimes reluctant to come to school? Getting dressed, having breakfast, leaving the house or getting into school can sometimes be challenging for both children and parents.

You are not alone!

Come along for a relaxed, informal coffee morning where we can:

- Share experiences and talk about those tricky mornings.
- Explore ideas and strategies to make mornings a little easier.
- Share tips and advice with other parents.
- Ask questions and access support in a friendly, welcoming space.
